

FRENCH INTERROGATIVE QUESTION WORDS

lll LOVE LEARNING LANGUAGES

Forming Questions Using Interrogative Words

Ask a question in French:

Intonation: Tu habites en France?

Est-ce que: Est-ce que tu habites en France?

What if you want more than a oui or non answer?

Interrogative Words:

Qui	who
Quoi	what (never at the beginning)
Que / Qu'	what (always at the beginning)
Quel + être	what is
Quand	when
Où	where
Pourquoi	why
Comment	how

View the full lesson

Level A1 French Course for Self Learners

Beginner Level French Masterclass

Placement of Interrogative Words:

Intonation: Jules va au magasin avec qui?
Who is Jules going to the store with?

Est-ce que: Avec qui est-ce que Jules va au magasin?
With whom is Jules going to the store?

Intonation: Les enfants vont à l'école comment?
How are the children going to school?

Est-ce que: Comment est-ce que les enfants vont à l'école?
How are the children going to school?

How to ask “What?”

What are you buying at the store?

Intonation: Tu achètes quoi au magasin?
What are you buying at the store?

Est-ce que: Qu'est-ce que tu achètes au magasin?
What are you buying at the store?

View the full lesson

Level A1 French Course for Self Learners

Beginner Level French Masterclass

Quel + Être = What is... ?

Quel est votre magasin préféré?

What is your favorite store?

“Quel” is an adjective:

“Quel” must agree in number and gender with the noun it modifies.

quel	masculine / singular
quels	masculine / plural
quelle	feminine / singular
quelles	feminine / plural

View the full lesson

Level A1 French Course for Self Learners

Beginner Level French Masterclass